FOREWORD

As we present this yearbook, we assure you that we have tried to give you a volume worthy of our high school.

Of course, each group of seniors feels that it is something special, but we really have a reason to think so. We are the last and the largest graduating class of Dickenson Memorial High School.

Through the years as we glance through the pages of this yearbook, we shall always remember our happy school days.

DEDICATION

MR. JOHN CAYWOOD
"In mathematics he was greater Than Tycho Brahe or Ezra Pater."

MR. PAUL SKEEN
"Gentle of speech,
but absolute of rule."

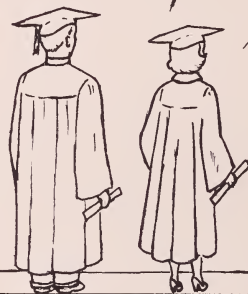

MISS NELL PHIPPS
"And strange to tell,
she practiced what she preached."

We are honored to dedicate the 1954 yearbook to our principal,
Mr. Paul Skeen, and to the senior home room teachers, Mr. John Caywood and Miss Nell Phipps.

We sincerely appreciate their interest in our class and their help and guidance in its undertakings.
